Beit Shalom

'Beit Shalom', or 'House of Peace' is situated in one of the most pristine locations in the Park and offers the assurance of burial and remembrance in accordance with Jewish Law. Beit Shalom has been fully consecrated by Rabbi Chaim Ingram and the Sydney Beth Din.

A beautiful burial

Burial has great spiritual meaning. Beit Shalom has been designed to give everything needed to observe the sanctity of Jewish traditions. Together with Sydney Chevra Kadisha, Woronora has carefully ensured that every loved one will be able to be buried and remembered as they would wish, showing Kavod (honour) to the Met (deceased person).

Beit Shalom has been designed to hold 120 graves, including 21 Full Monumental graves and 19 Monumental Lawn graves. Following guidelines issued by the Sydney Beth Din, the burial area will also allow for two burials per grave.

A restful decision

It's reassuring to know that your place within your community is secure. Every plot purchase at Woronora is approved by Sydney Chevra Kadisha, as only those of the Jewish faith are laid to rest in Beit Shalom.

A prepaid plot allows you and your family to relax, and to be able to make the best arrangements for you when the time comes, knowing that you have found a cemetery that will meet your requirements.
